Reception: Thursday, February 2, 2012, 6-8 PM

Meet with the Artist Winn Rea on February 4 & 25, 2012

Winn Rea, Sequence of video stills from "Topo Watch: Keene Valley Stream, 2011.

Winn Rea's process-based environmental works in Topo 3: Displacement/Flow consider the persistent flow of water that is both recollected and ongoing, shaping matter and memory.

BIO: Winn Rea has exhibited nationally and internationally from Gongju and Seoul, South Korea, to A.I.R. Gallery in New York, and The Urban Institute for Contemporary Art in Grand Rapids, Michigan. Her public art has been featured in the The Value of Water, at the Cathedral Church of Saint John the Divine in New York City, the Governor's Island Figment Art Festival and the Newburgh Sculpture Project.

Rea's work has been recognized by jurors, Holly Block, Director of Art In General, and Holly Solomon, Owner of Holly Solomon Gallery. Her work has received reviews in The New York Times, and grants from The New York Foundation for the Arts, The Puffin Foundation, and the Vermont Studio Art Center. She is a member of the Phoenix Gallery, New York, and Assistant Professor of Art, at Long Island University—Post. Her studio is in Long Island City, New York.
